Based on the OECD Common Reporting Standard, U.S. FATCA, and national legislation, SKAGEN is legally required to collect and report relevant information about an account holder's tax residency to the local competent authority.

For joint/multiple Account Holders, please complete a separate form for each. Do not use this form if the Account Holder is an individual or sole trader. Instead you should complete the Account Opening form for Private Persons.

SKAGEN can not provide tax advice nor determine the tax residency of the account holder. If you have questions on how to determine your tax residency status, please contact a tax advisor or the local tax authorities.

Information regarding the processing of personal data

Information regarding SKAGEN's processing of personal data can be found on www.skagenfunds.com under "Investor Protection"

Account Holder	The Account Holder is the person listed or identified as the holder of a Financial Account or other agreement with respect to a financial product by the Financial Institution that maintains the account or such agreement of a financial product.
Active Non-Financial Entity - Active NFE	An Entity (that is not a Financial Institution) is an Active Non-Financial Entity if: 1) more than 50% of the Entity's gross income derives from sales of goods and/or services and 2) more than 50% of the assets held by the entity relates to the sales of goods and/or services. An Active Non-Financial Entity means for example: - Active NFEs by reason of income and assets; - Publicly traded NFEs - the stock of the entity or a related entity is regularly traded on an established securities market; - Governmental Entities, International Organisations, Central Banks or their wholly owned Entities; - Holding companies that are members of a nonfinancial group; - Start-ups; - Entities that are liquidating or emerging from bankruptcy; - Treasury centres; - Non-Profit Organisation
Authorised	An authorised representative is authorised to sign statements or conclude contracts on behalf of the entity. The authorised representative is determined by the legal form of the entity or appointed by the entity.
Controlling Person / Beneficial Owner	The term Controlling Person refers to the natural persons who exercise control over an entity. For this purpose control includes direct or indirect ownership of more than 25% of the entity. This definition corresponds to the term "Beneficial Owner".
CRS	CRS is the Common Reporting Standard issued by the OECD, under which countries that have signed an international agreement exchange taxpayer information between jurisdictions.
Entity	The term Entity refers to a legal person or a legal arrangement, such as a corporation, organisation, partnership, trust or foundation.
FATCA	FATCA ("Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act") is a United States tax legislation that is aimed at identifying U.S. Persons that hold account(s) or financial assets outside of the United States.
FATCA-Partner Jurisdiction	FATCA-Partner Jurisdiction is a jurisdiction that has entered into an agreement (IGA) with the United States to exchange information under FATCA. Please see participating countries at the link below: http://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/tax-policy/treaties/Pages/FATCA-Archive.aspx
Financial Institution - FI	A Financial Institution is a depository institution, a custodial institution, an investment entity or a specified insurance company. The term investment entity refers to any entity that conducts as a business, or is managed by an entity that conducts as a business, one or more of the following activities or operations on behalf of a customer: • Trading of securities or other financial instruments, • Individual and collective portfolio management, or • Otherwise investing, administering or managing funds or money on behalf of other persons
GIIN-number	A GIIN is a "Global Intermediary Identification Number" (19 characters) that is issued by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and is the identification number that is assigned to foreign financial institutions and sponsoring entities for purposes of identifying their registration with the IRS under FATCA. The GIIN-number can be found here: https://apps.irs.gov/app/fatcaFfiList/flu.jsf
Non-Participating FFI	A Financial Institution outside a FATCA-partner jurisdiction that has not entered into an agreement with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for FATCA purposes is referred to as a Non-Participating Foreign Financial Institution. A Non-Participating FFI is subject to withholding tax under FATCA.
Participating Jurisdiction	A country that has adopted the Common Reporting Standard and that has signed the international agreement with the country in which you hold the financial account, i.e. the country where the Financial Institution is located. For more information regarding the CRS Participating Jurisdictions, please visit the official list of countries published by OECD at: http://www.oecd.org/ctp/exchange-of-tax-information/MCAA-Signatories.pdf
Passive Income	Income in respect of which, broadly speaking, the recipient does not participate in the business activity giving rise to the income, e.g. dividends, interest, rental income, royalties, etc.

Passive Non-Financial Entity - Passive NFE	A Passive NFE refers to an entity that is neither a Financial Institution nor an Active Non-Financial Entity, or a Professionally Managed Investment Entity located in a Non-Participating CRS Jurisdiction.
Politically Exposed Person (PEP)	A Politically Exposed Person is an individual who is or has been entrusted with a prominent public function (for example Heads of State or of government, senior politicians, senior government, judicial or military officials, senior executives of state owned corporations, important political party officials) in Norway or other countries, and family members and close associates of the PEP. For more information about PEP, please refer to Art. 3 (9) Directive (EU) http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32015L0849&from=EN
Related Entity	An entity is a Related Entity of another entity if either entity controls the other entity, or two entities are under common control. For this purpose control includes direct or indirect ownership of more than 50% of the votes in an entity.
Sponsoring Entity	A Sponsoring Entity is an entity that has registered with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and has agreed to fulfil the FATCA obligations on behalf of a sponsored entity.
Tax Residency	Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and jurisdictions have provided information on how to determine whether an entity is tax resident in the jurisdiction on the OECD Automatic Exchange of Information Portal. Generally, an Entity will be resident for tax purposes in a jurisdiction if, under the laws of that jurisdiction (including tax conventions), it pays or should be paying tax therein by reason of its domicile, residence, place of management or incorporation, or any other criterion of a similar nature, and not only from sources in that jurisdiction. Dual resident Entities may rely on the tiebreaker rules included in tax conventions (if applicable) to solve cases of double residence for determining their residence for tax purposes. An Entity such as a partnership, limited liability partnership or similar legal arrangement that has no residence for tax purposes shall be treated as resident in the jurisdiction in which its place of effective management is situated. For additional information on tax residence, please talk to your tax adviser, local tax office or see the OECD Automatic Exchange of Information Portal here: http://www.oecd.org/tax/transparency/automaticexchangeofinformation.htm
Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)	The term "TIN" refers to Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an Entity and is used to identify the individual or Entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Further details of acceptable TINs can be found at the OECD Automatic Exchange Portal here: http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-identification-numbers/#d.en.347759 . Some jurisdictions do not issue a TIN. However, these jurisdictions often utilise some other high integrity number with an equivalent level of identification (a "functional equivalent"). Examples of that type of number include, for Entities, a Business/
U.S. Citizenship/Residency	You are generally considered to have U.S. Tax Residency if you are resident in the United States; are a U.S. Citizen (including those with dual citizenships); if you are an owner of a U.S. Residence; or have a valid work permit in the U.S. ("Green Card").
