Clients will receive the relevant unit price on the day payment is credited to the fund's bank account, provided that SKAGEN has received all the documentation/information necessary to carry out the customer control. The form should be sent by email or post along with payment.

This communication is not directed at and must not be acted upon by American citizens, resident in or taxable to the USA, and is otherwise only directed at persons residing in jurisdictions where the relevant funds are authorised for distribution or where no such authorisation is required.

Internet portal "My Page"

As a SKAGEN Funds client you may use our web portal My Page. The portal provides tailored information and reports on your holdings in SKAGEN. You may also use the service to check the number of units registered with your account.

To access My Page you will need a user name and a password. Your user name is your email address registered with SKAGEN. The first time you log on to the My Page portal, you must register as a new user in order to obtain a password. You register by clicking on the Register as user link. You will then order a one-time code/one-time password which will be sent to you immediately by email.

Financial advice

All clients are entitled to complimentary financial advice from SKAGEN. If you have been advised by SKAGEN you will receive a copy of all advisory documentation.

The art of common sense

Historical returns are no guarantee for future returns. Future returns will depend, inter alia, on market developments, the fund manager's skill, the fund's risk profile and management fees. The return may become negative as a result of negative price developments.
